TO ALL and SINGULAR, Noblemen as well as Gentlemen, to whom these Presents shall come, I, Captain Nevil Rodwell Wilkinson, F.S.A., Ulster King of Arms and Principal Herald of All Ireland, Registrar of the Most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick, Send Greeting.

Whereas application hath been made unto me by John Carlisle Deey Spedding, Esquire, a Captain in His Majesty's Army, and formerly of the First Battalion of the Border Regiment, setting forth that he is the fourth but second surviving son of Robert Deey Spedding, Esquire, deceased, of the Bengal Civil Service, Master of Arts of the Royal University of Ireland, and Justice of the Peace for the North West Provinces of India, and so forth, unto whom and whose descendants and the other descendants of his father, the Reverend William Spedding, Clerk in Holy Orders, Master of Arts of the University of Dublin, and late Rector of Killencoole in the County of Louth, certain Armorial Ensigns were duly confirmed and recorded in my Office, and hath made it clearly appear unto me that Henry Spedding, of Dublin, gentleman, the grandfather of the said Reverend William Spedding was the son of John Spedding, who was the eldest son of Edward Spedding of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, gentleman, and brother of Carlisle Spedding, of Whitehaven, gentleman, unto whose descendants certain Armorial Ensigns were duly granted and confirmed and recorded in the College of Arms in England, and he hath therefore prayed that the same Arms may be duly confirmed unto him and his descendants and the other descendants of his grandfather the said Reverend William Spedding, and that the same may be registered and recorded in the Office of Ulster King of Arms in Ireland, instead of the Arms formerly confirmed and recorded therein, to the end that the Officers of Arms there and all others upon occasion may take full notice and have knowledge thereof, and Whereas, James Wyndham Harrington Percy Spedding, Esquire, of Summergrove, Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, hath expressed unto me his desire that the said Arms should be so confirmed and that the application for such has his full approval and consent, KNOW YE THEREFORE that I, the said Ulster King of Arms, having taken the request of the said applicant into consideration, and having examined into the circumstances, am pleased to comply therewith, and by virtue of the power unto me given by His Majesty's Royal Letters Patent under the Great Seal of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, called Ireland, and by the authority of the same, and by and with the consent of the said James Wyndham Harrington Percy Spedding, have ratified and confirmed, and by these Presents do exemplify, ratify, and confirm, unto the said John Carlisle Deey Spedding, Esquire, and his descendants, and the other descendants of his grandfather the said Reverend William Spedding, the ARMS following, that is to say:—Gules, on a fesse engrailed, between three acorns slipped or, a mural crown between two roses of the field, for CREST, out of a mural crown or, a dexter arm embowed in armour, the hand grasping a scymitar, the arm charged with three acorns one and two, and entwined by a branch of oak fructed all proper, and for MOTTO "Utile dulci," the whole as is more clearly above depicted, to be borne and used hereafter, instead of the Arms formerly confirmed, by him the said John Carlisle Deey Spedding, Esquire, and his descendants, and the other descendants of his grandfather the said Reverend William Spedding, for ever, with their due and proper differences according to the laws of Arms, without the let, hinderance, molestation, or interruption of any person or persons whatsoever.

IN WITNESS Whereof I subscribe these Presents with my Name and Title, and affix hereunto the seal of my Office, this twenty-sixth day of August, in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lord, EDWARD the Seventh, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth, and in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eight.

NEVILE R. WILKINSON,
Ulster King of Arms of All Ireland.

From the original Grant in the possession of Captain John Carlisle Deey Spedding.
